

Examples of writing from Avestan manuscripts

Yasna 10

Handwritten Avestan script from Manuscript K1, fol. 221v, showing Yasna 10. The text is written in a cursive style with various diacritics and lineations. The script is arranged in approximately 18 horizontal lines, with some lines containing multiple columns of text. The characters are dark and well-defined against the light background of the parchment. The overall appearance is that of a carefully written manuscript page.

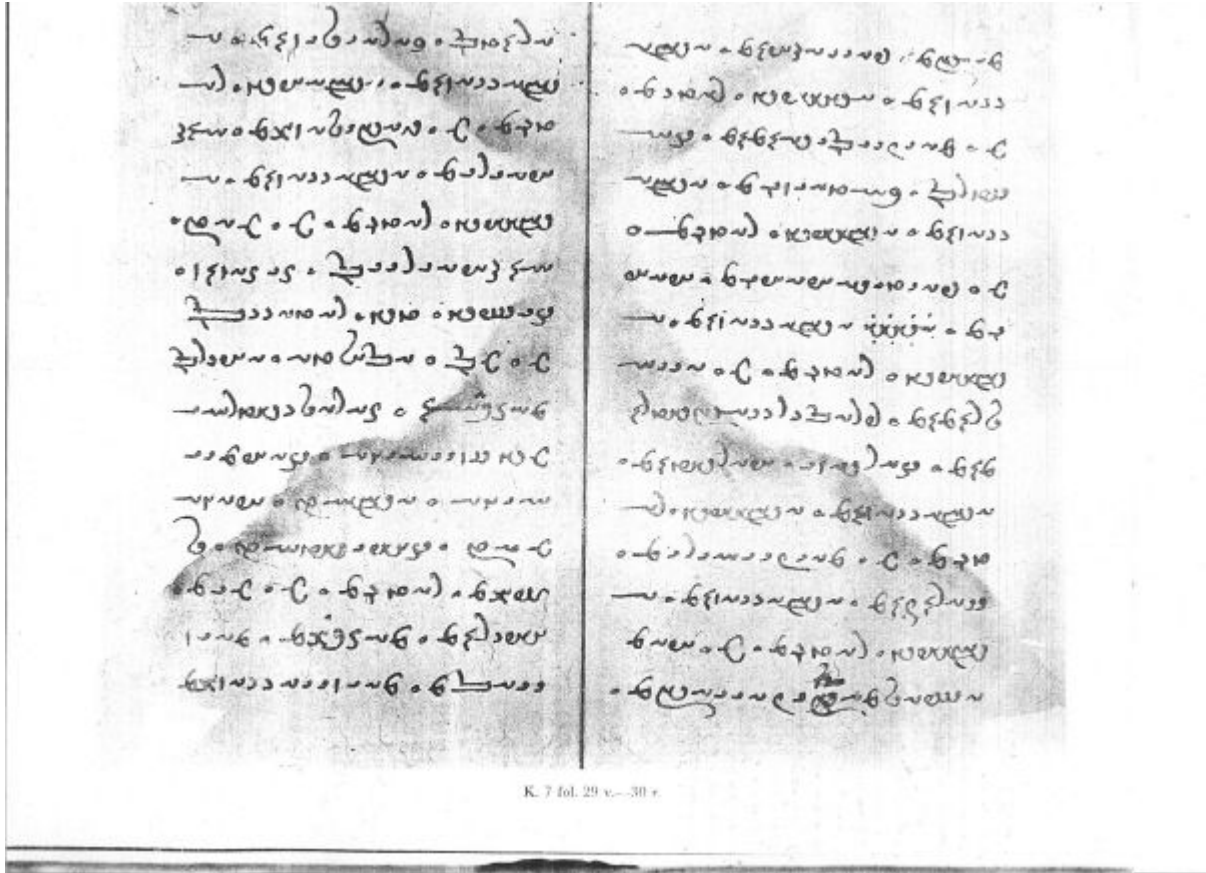

Handwritten text in Persian script, likely a historical document or manuscript. The text is arranged in several lines, with some words underlined. It appears to be a list or a series of entries, possibly related to a historical site or event. The script is clear and legible.
